

Occupational Health and Safety Policy

Sri Trang Gloves (Thailand) Public Company Limited is committed to the readiness and work with conscience by continually improving the performance of occupational Health and Safety. Sri Trang Gloves (Thailand) Public Company Limited. Occupational Health and Safety systems are considered important to business operations. By setting objectives, target and a management plan. Have operations review and follow up the performance every year.

Occupational Health and Safety Policy It is something that needs to be realized and taken seriously for good quality of life Sri Trang Gloves (Thailand) Public Company Limited have operated as follows:

1. Comply with laws, regulations and other requirements of the government or agencies related to Occupational Health and Safety.
2. Continue to improve Prevent and develop risky activities resulting in injury and / or health hazards to provide employees or a person under control of the organization is safe in life and property.
3. Continuously improve and develop the occupational health and safety management system. With monitoring.
4. Provide support for resources In terms of personnel, time, budget .
5. Communicate and train Occupational Health and Safety to employees or Persons under the control of to organization appropriately and adequately.
- 6 . Disclosure and disseminate the occupational health and safety policy Suggestions and complaints Occupational health and safety for the public.

Occupational health and safety slogan

Sri Trang Gloves (Thailand) Public Company Limited

Announced on 15 December 2021

Increase work efficiency

Establish safety standards

Build responsibility, build habits

Create a new dimension for Sri Trang

Miss Jarinya Jirojkul

Chief Executive Officer.